From the minute we became high school students to the last sad farewell to New Hanover High, we have been ever conscious of your presence. It was you who told us we would get out of high school just what we put into it. It was you who showed us how to begin—which foot to put forward. It was you who held us back when we began running too fast. Steel discipline flavored with love helped you to lead us aright. Many times you have borne the responsibility of foolish things to shield us. You have been our friend, our counselor, our leader. When we think of high school in the coming years, we will think of many things—good times, friends, good days, bad days, lessons—a jumble of memories. But always the one thing that will stand out sure and strong in our mind will be the thought of one who directed all of this activity, yet had time to understand each of us in our troubles or joys. We salute you, Mr. Hamilton, as the best gift New Hanover High could give to us.

ANNE MANITSAS.

Class Poem

*Ob School of ours, to you we pledge devotion.
Ob noble School, we'll ever honor you.
With tearful eyes, but heads erect we leave you,
Dear N. H. S. you've taught us to be true.*

*We leave your doors with higher living standards,
And with a code that ever will endure,
For like the clay you molded us and made us,
Dear N. H. S. you've taught us to be pure.*

*You gave us teachers who were kind and thoughtful,
They've watched a million like us come and go.
But one of them can only watch from Heaven,
Her life is all the gift she need bestow.*

*Within your walls we laughed and cried together,
But loved them both, the laughter and the tears.
What precious mem'ries have we now behind us,
To last us ever onward through the years.*

THELMA MINTZ.

Cooperative Employment

The Cooperative Employment Department was organized in New Hanover High School in 1937-38, being the first of its type in North Carolina. Mrs. Frances W. Trigg is head of the department assisted by Miss Mayo Jones and Mr. Herbert Harrell as Coordinators.

The aim of the class is training for a chosen vocation by actual work experience and the study of directly related material. All students work for at least three hours each day. The following occupations are represented on the program: radio technician, secretarial work, commercial artist, aeroplane mechanic, blue print reader, teletype operator, physical education director, laundry work, laboratory technician, comptometer operator, welder, and salesman. The seniors enrolled in Cooperative Employment are as follows:

Bible Club

Purpose

The Bible Club is an organization which aids the students in applying Biblical facts to their daily living. Emphasis is placed upon the personal attainment of the highest possible ideals as set down by our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Membership

Any boy or girl of the high school definitely interested in Christian living and service is eligible for club membership.

Meetings

The club holds its regular meetings each first and third Monday during the eighth period.

Activities

1. Club periods are often devoted to discussions of various phases of school life and personal Christian living.
2. Services, planned by the students, are held at the Catherine Kennedy Home, County Home and the Red Cross Sanitorium.
3. Hospital visitation is carried on by groups.
4. Hospital tray reminders are distributed on special occasions.

GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM

N. H. H. S.'s Phantom Queens have a spotless record in more than five years of inter-scholastic competition. Under the guidance of Coach Glenward Blomme the Queens seldom lost even an individual match during their meets.

With the abolition of inter-scholastic basketball competition for N. H. H. S. girls, tennis has become the only sport in which this high school's girls can compete with lassies of other schools.

Their new coach, Rupert Bryan, has had much difficulty in securing competition for the lassies, but was expected to turn out another fine team. The 1942 lineup:

No. 1. Eslie Fergus.	No. 4. Jocelyn Peck.
No. 2. Jean Jones.	No. 5. Mary Alice Rose.
No. 3. Louise Hardwick.	No. 6. Katherine Goodman.

Bottom Row, left to right: Eslie Fergus, Louise Hardwick, Jean Jones, and Jocelyn Peck.

BOYS' TENNIS TEAM

The Phantom Aces boast the most successful record of all of New Hanover High's athletic teams. Under ten years of Coach Glenward Blomme the Aces have consistently won the Eastern State Crown and the state title during many of these years. Coach Rupert Bryan took over the reins this year, and his biggest problem was securing opposition for his racquet prodigies.

Tennis has become one of the most popular "minor" sports at N. H. H. S. The boys are expected to make a good 1942 lineup:

No. 1. Charles Boney.	No. 5. Matt Bulluck.
No. 2. Bert Myers.	No. 6. George Saffo.
No. 3. Charles Edwards.	No. 7. Robert Simpson.
No. 4. Paul Snell.	No. 8. Jack Hufham.

Top Row: Coach Rupert Bryan, George Saffo, Matt Bullock, and Bert Myers.
Not in Picture: Charles Edwards, Robert Simpson.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Under the coaching of Rupert Bryan, New Hanover High's junior varsity basketball quint has lost but two inter-scholastic contests. The junior varsity was begun three years ago under Coach Nat Pepper. Continuing from that time, the "jayvel" teams have made quite a remarkable record. Much of the present day varsity material has been produced via the junior team.

Class History

Parting is such sweet sorrow. How true these words are! At last we have to leave the place that has been a second home to us for the last four years. Many memories have been made—some sweet, some sad. Now it is necessary to part from friends we love so dearly. As each and every Senior bids New Hanover High School "good-bye", there are tears in his eyes. We realize that regardless of how much we have learned during our four years in high school, the unattained is still before us. Always calling in her golden tones, ambition leads us on.

We remember the joys of our past years. Our freshman year we entered Hanover High with a feeling of awe. For a few weeks we walked around in a daze. Rooms, rooms, everywhere and nowhere to go. Those who had spent their eighth grade in the high school building had no difficulties going from class to class. Alas! they were of no help to us. Thus with Jim Lynch as our president we crept through the year 1938-1939.

Under the able leadership of Sally Prevatt as our president, we spent our sophomore year at the task of making ourselves known around the school. We joined club after club. Of course we had become members of some clubs during our freshman year, but we were just beginning to want our fingers in every pie we could possibly stick them into. For the first time in our entire history, we appeared in the HANOVERIAN as a group. The Friday afternoon dances were initiated into school life, and we were well represented by a large number of students.

With Anne Manitsas as president we climbed one more rung in the ladder of success. We were now full-fledged Juniors! Our play "The Patsy" with Tessie Finch and J. A. West in the leading roles was a grand success. After some indecision we chose the ruby as our class stone. How proud we were to wear the blood red ruby, a symbol of courage! Heroically we struggled through half a year of Solid Geometry under the sweetest teacher New Hanover High has ever known, "Miss Hettie". Many of our Juniors had the great honor of becoming members of the National Honor Society. Still others of our group took part in the Glee Club operetta "Trial by Jury." Our class also entertained the Seniors at an excellent prom, which was a riot of bright colors and gay laughter.

Last but not least came our Senior year, and with it, many privileges. Heads held high, we proudly walked up the Senior steps. We were master of all we surveyed. We had elected Burt Nisbet as our president in our last year of glory and he proved to be an able leader. Of our class, twenty-eight had the distinction of becoming members of the National Honor Society. Fifteen of these members had been elected into the society their Junior year. The candle light induction service was very beautiful and impressive. The old members of the Society came off the stage among the audience and escorted the new members back. What a thrill it was and what a feeling of pride and fear entered us when we took our vow to uphold the standards of the Society. The Senior play "The Mad March Heirs" was very good. Our Senior boys distinguished themselves in their play with an all boy cast.

We were glad and proud to dedicate our annual to one who has devoted his time and energy for the improvement of the school and its pupils. Sergeant Gruits—we congratulate you!

The Senior class, and also the entire faculty and student body, was greatly grieved by the passing away of "Miss Hettie" Struthers. "Miss Hettie," who often told us wasting time was a sin, had endeared herself to us by her interest in making better men and women out of us. Not even death can sever the bonds of love that make her ever dear to us. We were also grieved at the passing away of another old friend, Mr. Carothers. Time after time our lockers have been opened by him, and he was ever present when needed. It was with deep sorrow that we also heard of the death of Betty Hartis, a member of the band and our class. We all knew that through thick and thin, Betty could be depended on—she always did her duty to the best of her ability. These, who have served us so faithfully these many years, will always live on in our memories.

Time goes on its way. It is up to us to take advantage of time and accomplish what we will. Having thus completed our high school course, we look back with longing and wish to turn back the hands of the ever moving clock, a feat which is impossible. We face our future with eager eyes and clear minds. Our goals are coming into sight now that the veil of ignorance has been pushed aside. And so, dear N. H. H. S. we take leave of you with hearts bursting with gratitude. It is impossible to repay you for all you have done for us. We are leaving—richer in wisdom, purer in mind, stronger in spirit. We will always carry with us and cherish these beautiful memories.

Au revoir—

By DIMITRA GEORGE.

Last Will and Testament

We, the 1942 Senior Class of New Hanover High School, singly and collectively do wish to make the following bequests:

We, the Senior Class, do hereby bequeath our dependability to the Junior Class, realizing that they will prove able successors.

We, the Senior Class, do hereby bequeath our ability and desire for learning to the Sophomore Class, knowing that they can continue in our footsteps and be a real credit to our school.

We, the Senior Class, do hereby bequeath our cooperativeness to the Freshman Class, hoping that they will give willingly and freely of what they have and never shirk their duty.

I, EVELYN BROWN, leave my versatility to BETTY FAY ALLEN.

I, LEON TODD, leave my way with the ladies to CHARLES BRINDELL.

I, FRANCES THORNTON, leave my glamour to LOUISE WARNER.

I, JIM LYNCH, leave my military achievement to JOHN CODINGTON.

I, ANNE MANITSAS, leave my influence to FLORENCE DAVIS.

I, LEHMAN GREENE, leave my heart and hand to DOTTY SUTHERLAND.

I, SALLY PREVATT, leave my quiet manner and bashful ways to PATTY DARDEN.

I, KENNETH BLAND, leave my knack for politics to DAVIS HOWES.

I, TESSIE FINCH, leave my flirtatious ways to MARY JEAN CHRISTIE.

I, MORTIMER GLOVER, leave my intellectual ability to HOOPER JOHNSON.

I, MARY ALICE ROSE, leave my pep and vitality to AGGIE MORTON.

I, J. A. WEST, leave my craze for Student Council to HERBERT DAVIS.

I, JOCELYN PECK, leave my numerous boy friends to all the hopeless hopefuls.

I, JIM MIDDLETON, leave my photographic ability to HARRY McGIRT.

I, KATHRYN GOODMAN, leave my "oomph" to BETTY HARRISS.

I, ALEC BROWN, leave the Visual Ed. Dept. to BOB ROBINSON.

I, LOUISE HARDWICK, leave my happy disposition to BETSY APPLEWHITE.

I, MAC WILSON, leave my wit (a-pun my word) to MATT BULLOCK.

I, GIBBS HOLMES, leave my sweet friendly nature to EMMA MITCHELL.

I, JACK NALL, leave my school spirit to HOWARD MORROW.

LULA PULLIAM, Attorney-at-Law.
